

David Walbridge Johnson

David Walbridge Johnson, age 62, passed away Saturday, March 4, 2017. Born October 18, 1954, in Glen Cove, N.Y., the son of the late Donald and Helen Johnson, he is survived by his wife Debby, son Marcus and daughter Sylvea.

Dave moved to Rye, N.H., in 1982 from Westport, Conn., and has lived in the seacoast area ever since. Dave graduated from Nasson College in 1979, was an entrepreneur, small business owner, historical re-enactor, dog lover and hockey player. He will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

Remembrances in honor of Dave may be made to the charity of your choice.